

The Gallery at Tacoma Community College

CALL FOR ENTRIES

BLACK ART & BLACK ARTISTS

APPLICATION DEADLINE: October 7, 2022

EXHIBIT: February 21-March 17, 2023

The Gallery at TCC invites South Puget Sound artists to submit entries for a juried art exhibition.

THEME

Black Art refers to artwork that is informed by all realities of the African American experience and is an “aesthetic and spiritual...” expression as alluded to by scholar Larry Neal. Black artists are creators descended from African peoples, and they may or may not create what is often referred to as Black Art.

BLACK ART & BLACK ARTISTS is an opportunity for artists to explore subjects related to Black culture, identity, and society as well as abstract and representational work based on Black themes. The following media will be considered for the exhibition: drawing, ceramics, glass, painting, photography, textiles, and sculpture.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Gallery will offer a variety of educational opportunities to encourage a dialogue about BLACK ART & BLACK ARTISTS for the college and community. The exhibition will feature didactic panels for each work of art, and a digital and printed brochure. Artists may also participate in community panel discussions, and gallery talks.

APPLICATION

Artists who wish to have their work considered should email up to five images to jolson@tacomacc.edu of available work, a checklist, a resumé, a statement about each piece, and an exhibition history. Entries will be judged by a jury of local artists and community leaders based on creativity and quality. The resumé and exhibition history will be used for didactic panels and are not a factor in jury selection.

If selected, artwork should be display-ready and delivered to the gallery on February 13, 2023 between 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Delivery and pick-up of application materials and works selected for the show are the responsibility of the artist.
