06/06/2016 - 06/30/2016

NEW COURSES
COURSE	PROPOSAL TYPES		EFF DATE	JUSTIFICATION	CHANGES
ABE 065 Math Support for Non Native Speakers of English  CC Approval: 06/14/2016	Min Credits	Min Hours	2016 Fall	The course is being offer as part of the new state and federal College and Career Readiness standards that require math instruction for ESL students. Many ESL students enrolled in ABE 066,067 and 068 often have solid pre-college or college level computational skills, but lack necessary vocabulary, speaking, listening and reading comprehension in the math content area. This will help prepare ESL students to transition into college level courses more quickly and confidently.

The current course description is additionally limiting by using verbage that is somewhat outdated (i.e. telephone) and leaves no room for the changes in business practices of the 21st century (ever expanding communications that include mobile devices, social media, etc.) Lastly, the current description failed to acknowledge the CLO links to the PLO and CWLO of ethics and cultural competency.
